ASTRONOMICAL OCCURRENCES.

THE MOON and Venus are very near to each other during the evening hours of Jan. 3; the Moon is to the right of Jupiter during the evening hours of the 6th, and to the left of this planet during the evening hours of the 7th. She will be very near Saturn during the evening hours of the 7th, being a little to the right of the planet till about the 11 o'clock, and a little to the left after this time. She is near Mars on the 28th, and Mercury on the 30th. Her phases or times of change are:—

First Quarter	on the 7th at 9 minutes after 8h. in the morning.
Full Moon	„ 15th „ 34 „ 11 „ morning.
Last Quarter	„ 23rd „ 47 „ 8 „ morning.
New Moon	„ 30th „ 48 „ 0 „ morning.

She is nearest the Earth on the 29th, and most distant from it on the 14th.

MERCURY is a morning star till the 19th, rising on the 1st at 7h. 10m. a.m., or 58m. before sunrise; on the 6th at 7h. 28m. a.m., or 38m. before sunrise; on the 11th at 7h. 41m. a.m., or 24 minutes before the Sun. On the 19th the planet and Sun rise together: from this day till March 3 the planet rises in daylight, or after the Sun. On the 28th he sets at about sunset, and on the last day of the month at 4h. 58m. p.m., or 13 minutes after sunset. He is at his greatest distance from the Sun on the 8th, in superior conjunction with the Sun on the 26th, and near the Moon on the 30th.

VENUS is an evening star, setting on the 1st at 7h. 38m. p.m., or 3h. 38m. after sunset; on the 11th at 8h. 9m. p.m., or 3h. 58m. after sunset; on the 21st at 8h. 38m. p.m., or 4h. 11m. after the Sun; and on the last day of the month at 9h. 5m. p.m. She is near the Moon on the 3rd.

MARS is a morning star, rising on the 1st at 6h. 40m., or 1h. 28m. before sunrise; on the 11th at 6h. 35m. a.m., or 1h. 30m. before the Sun; on the 21st at 6h. 29m. a.m., or 1h. 27m. before the Sun; and on the last day at 6h. 19m. a.m., or 1h. 24m. before sunrise. He is due south on the 1st at 10h. 34m. a.m., on the 15th at 10h. 23m. a.m., and on the last day at 10h. 12m. a.m. He is near the Moon on the 28th.

BANK OF ENGLAND.

The Bank of England was the first Joint-Stock Bank established in England. It was incorporated by William III. in 1694. When first established the notes of the Bank were at 20 per cent discount, and so late as 1745 they were under par. Bank Bills were paid in silver, 1745. Cash payments were discontinued in 1797, when notes of one and two pounds were first put into circulation. Banks were first established in 808 by the Lombard Jews, some of whom settled in Lombard-street.

The following is the House List of Governors and Directors of the Bank of England for the present year:—

Governor, John William Birch. Deputy Governor, Henry R. Grenfell.

James P. Currie	John G. Hubbard	Hugh C. Smith
Benj. B. Greene	Thomas N. Hunt	Clifford Wigram

Chief Accountant, John Francis.
Secretary, H. Chubb.

Chief Cashier, Frank May.
Solicitors, Messrs. Freshfield.

TRANSFER DAYS AT THE BANK.

All Stocks on Tuesdays, Wednesdays, Thursdays, and Fridays. Private Transfers may be effected at other times, providing the books are not closed, by paying 2s. 6d. for each Transfer. Tickets for preparing the Transfer of Stock must be given in at the Bank of England before one o'clock. Expenses of Transfer in Bank Stock for £25 and under, 9s.; above that sum, 12s.; India Stock, 41 10s.

Powers of attorney for the sale or transfer of Stock are to be left at the Bank, &c., for examination, one day before they can be acted upon; if for receiving dividends, they may be presented at the time the first is payable.

Probates of Wills, Letters of Administration, and other proofs of decease must be left at the Bank, &c., for registration, for two or three days.

If Life Annuities be transferred between Jan. 5 and April 4, or between July 5 and Oct. 4, dividends are payable on Jan. 5 and July 5. If transferred between April 5 and July 4, or between Oct. 5 and Jan. 4, dividends are payable on April 5 and Oct. 5. Transferred at the National Debt Office, Old Jewry.

The dividends are paid to the public three days after the dates named; if a Sunday intervene, four days after. The hours for buying and selling are 10 to 1; for transferring, 11 to half-past 2; for accepting, 9 to 3; for payment of dividends, 9 to 3. Transfer-books are closed at 1 p.m. on Saturdays.

Dividend Warrants issued as follows:—1. To the fundholder personally at the Bank of England. 2. Under Power of Attorney, free of stamp duty or any other charge. 3. By post within the United Kingdom.

Fundholders who desire to have their Dividend Warrants sent by post must fill up a form, obtainable at the Bank of England or its branches, and at all money-order offices. For joint accounts, all the parties in whose names the fund stands must sign in favour of the one to whom the warrant is to be sent. Post warrants will be crossed "and Co.," and can be cashed at any money-order office, or paid away as ordinary bankers' cheques. Notice should be given to the Bank of the non-reception of any warrant which has been directed to be sent by post.

CHANGES IN PARLIAMENT DURING THE SESSION 1880

On March 24 the Parliament elected in 1874 was dissolved, and on April 28 the ensuing general Election was completed; but even before the elections were over a vacancy was created by the sudden death of Mr. S. S. Wright, the member for Nottingham. The vacancy was filled by the return of Mr. Arnold Morley. Mr. Herbert J. Gladstone was returned for Leeds, in the place of his father. Sir William Harcourt was defeated at Oxford, on presenting himself for re-election, by Mr. Hall, who was again unseated for bribery. Mr. Evans Williams was returned as successor to the Marquis of Hartington, who had been, like Mr. Gladstone, elected to fill two places. Mr. Mark J. Stewart defeated the Lord Advocate on offering himself for re-election, but again was unseated for bribery.

Mr. Parnell, being elected for two places, preferred to sit for Cork; Mr. A. M. Sullivan, as he declined to sit with Mr. Callan, was subsequently returned for Meath. The Rev. Mr. Nelson was returned for Mayo without opposition, and Mr. A. H. Bellingham for county Louth. Sir W. Harcourt was returned for Derby, Mr. Pimms resigning to make way for him; Sir John Lubbock was elected for the University of London, Mr. Lowe having been raised to the peerage as Viscount Sherbrooke; and Mr. Crompton Roberts, succeeded Mr. Knatchbull-Hugessen at Sandwich, who had also been raised to the Upper House as Lord Brabourne. Captain P. Bernard retired from Bandon rather than face a petition, and was replaced by Mr. Allman. Then came unseating on petition, Mr. Thomas A. Dickson, for Dungannon, who was replaced by his son, Mr. James Dickson. For Wallingford Mr. Walter Wren was replaced by Mr. P. Ralli, formerly M.P. for Bridport. Gravesend, Mr. Bevan was succeeded by Sir Sidney Waterlow. Eversham, Mr. D. Ratcliff was replaced by Mr. T. Lehmann. Plymouth, Sir E. Bates was replaced by Mr. E. Clarke, the rejected of Southwark. Tewkesbury, Captain Price was replaced by Mr. R. Biddulph Martin. Bewdley, Mr. Harrison was replaced by Mr. E. Baldwin. Lichfield, Col. Dyott by Col. Levett. Buteshire, Mr. Thomas Russell was disqualified and succeeded by Mr. C. Dalrymple. Berwick-on-Tweed, on the elevation of Mr. Strutt, by the death of his father, Lord Belper, returned Captain Horne, and on view of his elevation Sir Harcourt Johnstone resigned his seat for Scarborough to make way for Mr. Dodson, the President of the Local Government Board, who had been unseated on petition for Chester. Sir John Hay was returned for the Wigtown Boroughs in place of Mr. Stewart, unseated, and Lord Claude Hamilton was returned for Liverpool in place of Lord Ramsay, removed to the Upper House by the death of his father, Lord Dalhousie. In addition to these changes the House is short of twelve members, pending Reports of Commissions appointed to inquire into the prevalence of corrupt practices at Boston, Canterbury, Chester, Gloucester, Knaresborough, Macclesfield, Oxford, and Sandwich.

ASTRONOMICAL OCCURRENCES.

THE MOON is very near Venus during the evening hours of the 1st. She is near Mars during the morning hours of the 25th; near Mercury during the morning hours of the 27th; near Jupiter and Saturn during the morning hours of the 28th, being about 5 deg. higher than Jupiter, and 6 deg. higher than Saturn, and she is near Venus during the evening hours of the 28th. Her phases or times of change are:—

First Quarter on the	6th	at 54 minutes after	3h.	in the afternoon.
Full Moon	14th	50	11	morning.
Last Quarter	21st	33	9	morning.
New Moon	28th	24	10	morning.

She is nearest the Earth on the 19th at midnight, and most distant from it on the 7th.

MERCURY is a morning star, rising on the 1st at 4h. 59m. a.m., or 39 minutes before sunrise; this interval gradually decreases to 32m. by the 11th, to 29m. by the 21st, and to 26m. by the 26th, the planet rising on this day at 4h. 19m. a.m. He is at his greatest distance from the Sun on the 6th, at his greatest western elongation (27 deg. 40 min.) on the 7th, and near the Moon on the 26th at about midnight.

VENUS is an evening star, setting on the 1st at 10h. 34m. p.m.; on the 11th at 10h. 12m. p.m., or 3h. 25m. after sunset; on the 21st at 9h. 20m. p.m., or about 2h. 16m. after sunset; and on the last day of the month at

8h. 10m. p.m., or 51 minutes after sunset. She is near the Moon on the 1st and again on the 28th; and stationary among the stars on the 11th.

MARS is a morning star, rising on the 1st at 4h. 30m. a.m., or 1h. 8m. before sunrise; on the 11th at 4h. 5m. a.m., or 1h. 10m. before the Sun; on the 21st at 3h. 39m. a.m., or 1h. 16m. before sunrise; and on the 30th at 3h. 16m. a.m., or 1h. 21m. before the Sun. He is due south on the 1st at 9h. 25m. a.m.; on the 15th at 9h. 10a.m.; and on the last day at 8h. 54m. a.m. He is near the Moon on the 24th.

JUPITER sets on the 1st at 7h. 58m. p.m.; or 1h. 27m. after sunset; on the 11th at 7h. 31m. p.m., or 44 minutes after sunset; on the 21st the planet and Sun set nearly together; and the planet sets in daylight after this day till Nov. 14. He rises at sunrise on the 24th, and 7 minutes before sunrise on the last day. He is due south on the 1st at 1h. 4m. p.m.; on the 15th at 0h. 21m. p.m.; and on the last day at 11h. 36m. a.m. He is near Saturn on the 22nd, and near the Sun on the same day, and near the Moon on the 28th.

SATURN sets on the 1st at 8h. 4m. p.m., or 1h. 33m. after sunset; on the 11th at 7h. 32m. p.m., or 45 minutes after sunset; on the 20th he sets at about the time of sunset, and from this day till Nov. 2 he sets in daylight. He rises at about sunrise on the 29th. He is due south on the 1st at 1h. 13m. p.m., on the 15th at 0h. 24m. p.m., and on the last day at 11h. 33m. a.m. He is near the Sun and Jupiter on the 22nd, and near the Moon on the 28th.

 47. An Act for the better protection of occupiers of land against injury to their crops from Ground Game.
 48. An Act to continue various Expiring Laws.
- During the Session there were passed 48 Public Acts and 203 Local and Private Acts, of which four were ordered not to be printed.

THE GROUND GAME ACT.—The last important Act but one which received the Royal Assent on Sept. 7, 1880, was that bearing the above title. In a short preamble it is recited that, in the interests of good husbandry, and for the better security for capital and labour invested in the occupiers of land, it is necessary that further provision should be made to enable occupiers to protect their crops from injury and loss by ground game—the ground game being hares and rabbits. The Act contains only some seven or eight clauses, and enacts that an occupier shall have the right to kill hares and rabbits concurrently with any other person (meaning thereby landlords) entitled to kill the same on lands in his occupation. The right to kill, however, is limited to the farmer himself and one other person, who must be specially authorised in writing. "No person shall be authorised by the occupier to kill or take ground game, except members of his household resident on the land in his occupation, persons in his ordinary service on such land, and any one other person bona fide employed by him for reward in the taking and destruction of ground game. Every person so authorised by the occupier, on demand by any person having a concurrent right to take and kill the ground game on the land, or any person authorised by him in writing to make such demand, shall produce to the person so demanding the document by which he is authorised, and in default he shall not be deemed to be an authorised person." Then follow certain instructions with regard to hired grazing or pasture land; and in the case of moorlands and uninclosed lands the rights conferred by the Act extend only from Dec. 11 in one year until March 31 in the following year. Then the occupier is not permitted to enter into an agreement with the landlord which shall contract himself out of the rights conferred by the Act. Neither is he to resort to spring traps or poison, or use firearms after sunset or before sunrise. The Act concludes with a saving clause with regard to existing prohibitions.

THE CITY PAROCHIAL CHARITIES.

A report of considerable interest has been presented to Parliament by a Commission appointed to inquire into the condition and administration of the parochial charities of the City of London. It appears that the area of the City proper comprises 109 parishes to the space of one square mile, not quite 700 acres. The report gives in a tabular form:—

1. The area of each parish, according to the Census Returns, 1861.
2. The number of inhabited houses } in 1851, 1861, and 1871, taken from the Census Returns of those years.
3. The population }
4. The gross income of the charities in 1865, 1870, 1876, taken from the Parliamentary returns.
5. The number of outdoor paupers in March, 1879, from a return furnished by the clerk of the City Union.
6. The rateable value.

The population within that square mile was, according to the Census of 1861, 112,063; in 1871 it had fallen to 74,897, showing a decrease in that decade of 37,166 souls.

The list of the ecclesiastical parishes within the City of London shows how the civil parishes have been united for ecclesiastical purposes, and give in a tabular form for each civil and ecclesiastical parish the area, the population in 1871, the gross income of the charities, ecclesiastical and secular.

The income of the charities amounted at the time of the last return to Parliament, in 1876, to	£	s.	d.
If from this amount be deducted that of the charities administered under schemes approved by the Court of Chancery or the Charity Commissioners...	£	s.	d.
And that of charities for which schemes have been submitted but not approved as yet	6,171	5	9
	23,879	15	1

The remainder will be the amount still under the uncontrolled administration of the local authorities—viz. 81,014 18 3

Contemporaneously with these changes an immense increase in the value of property has taken place, including that from which the funds of the several charities are derived, the receipts from many of the estates having within the last few years doubled, or even trebled in amount. Thus the parish of All Hallows, Lombard-street, which has no poor, is possessed of several houses in Gracechurch-street. In 1854 these produced a rental of £482 a year. The present rental is upwards of £1200 a year. The rental of the parish estates of St. Mary's Abchurch was in 1860 £600, and has now increased to £1125 a year. In St. Peter's-le-Poer an estate which in 1873 produced only £60 a year now brings in no less a sum than £1450. With regard to the administration of the several funds, this is designated as mischievous, and that the recipients are pauperised, and that the money is often thrown away.

In many cases the objects specified by the trusts have ceased to exist, or their origin has been lost, and is, therefore, applied to purposes outside of charity, and even when the charities are being administered under the direction of the Court of Chancery the result is not always satisfactory.

In some cases the scheme has entirely ceased to be applicable to the existing circumstances. As an instance, certain charitable funds have been accumulated for the purpose of purchasing a piece of land to be used as a cemetery, for the inhabitants of St. Michael, Crooked-lane, only. The accumulations now amount to £1344, and are still going on. If ever the cemetery is purchased, however, it will remain almost unoccupied, for there are hardly any residents in the parish of St. Michael, and there certainly is no need of a cemetery for them. Again, in the case of Long's Charity, belonging to the parish of St. Edmund, though the scheme is comparatively recent, the income dealt with by it amounted to £1102. The present income is £4300. It is true the scheme directs that in case the funds should be augmented the payments for the several objects provided for should be increased accordingly; but it by no means follows that a more proper and advantageous use of the charitable funds might not be made when the increase is so enormous as in the present case.

After the Fire of London certain parishes whose churches had been burnt, and subsequently by separate Acts of Parliament other parishes, were united for ecclesiastical purposes, but all these still remain distinct for civil purposes, and retain their full separate, and too often useless, parochial machinery of vestry clerks, churchwardens, overseers, and other parish officers.

THE PRESENT INCOME TAX originated 5th and 6th Victoria, cap. 35, June 22, 1842; but it was first imposed Jan. 4, 1799, by 39th Geo. III., cap. 12, during the war with France. This, however, was repealed on May 4, 1802, by 42nd Geo. III., cap. 42.

" 2 oz., and less than 4 oz. ...	2d.
" 4 oz., and less than 6 oz. ...	2½d.
" 6 oz., and less than 8 oz. ...	3d.
" 8 oz., and less than 10 oz. ...	3½d.
" 10 oz., and less than 12 oz. ...	4d.

A letter exceeding the weight of 12 oz. is liable to a postage of 1d. for every ounce, beginning with the first ounce. A letter, for example, weighing between 14 oz. and 15 oz. must be prepaid 1s. 3d.

All inland letters must be prepaid in stamps. A letter posted unpaid is chargeable on delivery with double postage; and if insufficiently prepaid is chargeable with double the deficiency.

Letters for the Country posted in London or the London Districts on Saturday too late for the ordinary Evening Mails, but in time for the last Evening Collections are delivered next morning, if for places within the range of the Midnight despatches; if for places beyond that range, they are delivered on Monday. The late fee charged for posting inland ordinary letters, after the time of closing the boxes for the dispatch of a mail, is reduced to an uniform rate of a halfpenny.

All Post Offices in the London District are closed on Sundays, with some few exceptions, which are open for the receipt and dispatch of telegrams during the hours stated in Postal Guide.

On Bank Holidays the Postal and Telegraph arrangements in London are of an exceptional character, and due notice is given of them by means of Notices to the public exhibited at Metropolitan Post Offices.

Inquiries for Missing Letters, &c., should be made at the Secretary's Office, New Building, between ten a.m. and four p.m. (Saturdays between ten and one).

The Returned Letter Office is in Telegraph-street, Moorgate-street. The Money Order Office is at No. 1, Aldersgate-street. The Post-Office Savings Bank is in Queen Victoria-street, E.C.

LETTERS "TO BE CALLED FOR."

There is a Poste Restante both at the General Post Office, St. Martin's-le-Grand, and at the Charing-cross Post Office, where letters "to be called for" can be obtained between the hours of nine a.m. and five p.m. No letters (except communications from the Savings Bank Department) are taken in "to be called for" at the other district or branch offices, and any so directed are sent to the Returned Letter Office to be returned to the writers.

COLONIAL AND FOREIGN LETTERS.

Full particulars of the rates of postage on letters to the colonies and foreign countries will be found in the British Postal Guide, published quarterly, price Sixpence.

No letter for any colony or foreign country may be above two feet in length or one foot in width or depth. Neither must it contain gold or silver money, jewels, or precious articles, or anything liable to Customs duties, can be sent, even if registered, to any country of the General Postal Union.

INLAND BOOK POST.

The postage is one halfpenny for every 2 oz. or part of that weight. A packet posted wholly unpaid is charged with double the book postage; and if posted partially prepaid, with double the deficiency.

A book packet may contain any number of separate books or other publications, photographs (when not on glass or in cases containing glass or any like substance), drawings, prints, or maps, and any quantity of paper, or any other substance in ordinary use for writing or printing upon; and the books or other publications, prints, maps, &c., may be either printed, written, engraved, lithographed, or plain, or any mixture of these. Further, all legitimate binding, mounting, or covering of a book, &c., or of a portion thereof, is allowed, whether such binding, &c., be loose or attached; as also rollers in the case of prints or maps, markers (whether of paper or otherwise) in the case of books, pens, or pencils, in the case of pocket-books, &c.; and, in short, whatever, is necessary for the safe transmission of such articles, or usually appertains thereto, but the binding, rollers, &c., must not be sent as a separate packet.

COLONIAL AND FOREIGN BOOK POST.

The limit of size for a book-packet addressed to any place abroad is 24 in. in length and 12 in. in width or depth.

Whatever is allowed to be sent in an inland book-packet may be sent in a book-packet to places abroad, except that water-colour drawings are not allowed to be sent in a book-packet to France or Algeria.

No writing or manuscript mark, however, beyond the name and address of the person to whom it is sent is admissible in or upon a packet forwarded via France to the Argentine Confederation, Bolivia, Chili, Ecuador, Hayti, Mexico, Paraguay, Peru, St. Thomas, Uruguay, United States of Colombia, or Venezuela.

FOREIGN CARD POST.

Foreign post-cards may be sent to Canada and to all the countries comprised in the General Postal Union, with the exception of British India.

The postage of a card is in every case one half the rate for a single letter. Foreign post-cards with an impressed stamp of 1d. and 1½d. each are sold at that rate, and are transmissible to the majority of the countries of the Union without extra charge, but reference should be made for exceptional rates to the Post Office Guide.

REGISTRATION (INLAND AND FOREIGN.)

The fee for registering a letter, newspaper, or book-packet passing between any two places in the United Kingdom is twopence.

The fee chargeable for registration to Colonies and Foreign Countries will be found in the Post Office Guide.

Every letter to be registered should be presented at the counter, and a receipt obtained for it, and should on no account be dropped into the letter-box. If, contrary to this rule, a letter marked "Registered," be dropped into the letter-box, it will, if directed to any place in the United Kingdom or the British Colonies, be liable to a registration fee of 4d., instead of the ordinary fee of 2d.

INDIAN PARCEL POST.

1. Persons wishing to send parcels to any part of British India can do so through the Indian Parcel Post Agency—established under authority of the Director-General of the Post Office of India—at 122, Leadenhall-street, E.C.; and (Branch Office) at 25, Cockspur-street, S.W.

2. The charge for parcels is 1s. per lb. or fraction of a lb. (prepayment optional), covering transit from London to destination in India. Insurance may be effected, if desired, at the rate (to be prepaid) of 1s. up to £3 value, 2s. 6d. up to £10 value, and 5s. up to £20 value. Indian Customs duty (if chargeable) will be realised from the addressee.

N.B.—Parcels containing books, or articles treated as books under the British Inland Book Post Rules, are charged 6d. per lb.

COLONIAL AND FOREIGN PATTERN AND SAMPLE POST.

There is a Pattern and Sample Post to certain colonies and foreign countries, but it is restricted to bona fide trade patterns or samples of merchandise.

Goods sent for sale, or in execution of an order (however small the quantity may be), or any articles sent by one private individual to another which are not actually patterns or samples, are not admissible. The rates of postage are the same as for Book Packets.

ARTICLES NOT ALLOWED TO BE SENT BY POST.

It is forbidden to forward by post any obscene print, painting, photograph, book or card, or other article, or any letter, newspaper, publication, packet, or card having thereon any words, marks, or designs of a libellous or grossly offensive character; glass bottles, gunpowder, lucifer-matches or anything liable to combustion, razors, scissors, or other sharp instrument, game, fish, fruit, or other perishable article.

MODES OF PREPAYMENT.

Inland letters, newspapers, and book-packets cannot be prepaid in money but must be prepaid by means of stamps, either adhesive or embossed or impressed. This rule applies also to registered letters.

Exceptions.—At the Chief and District Post Offices, and at the Charing-cross and Lombard-street Post Offices in London, as well as at the Head Offices in Edinburgh and Dublin, letters and book-packets may, from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m., be prepaid in money, provided the amount be never less than £1, and that the letters and book-packets be tied in bundles representing a postage of 5s. each, with the addresses arranged in the same direction.

Letters to places abroad must be prepaid wholly in stamps. Newspapers, book-packets, and sample-packets for places abroad can also be prepaid only by means of stamps; the prepayment being compulsory.

British postage-stamps, though available for all letters, &c., going out of this country, are not, as a general rule, available for letters, &c., coming into it; the principal exception being in the case of letters posted by naval officers, marines, and seamen serving abroad, which, if posted in the ship's bag, must be prepaid by means of British postage-stamps.

POST-OFFICE MONEY ORDERS.

The regulations which came into operation Oct. 1, 1880, with respect to postal orders enacts that the following poundage be paid:—1s., 2d., 2s. 6d., 5s., or 7s. 6d., 1d., 10s., 12s. 6d., 15s., 17s. 6d., or 20s., 2d.

The postmaster may require the person to sign his name on the order before payment is made, although it has been already signed. A postal order may be crossed to a particular banker, and the banker to whom it is crossed may cross it to another banker or agent for collection; and when so crossed specially a postmaster shall refuse to pay it, except to the banker to whom it is crossed.

If three months shall have expired before the order is presented for payment a commission equal to the amount of the original poundage will be charged; and if the order contains any erasure or alteration, or is cut or defaced, the postmaster may refuse payment and refer the same to the Postmaster-General. The payment of the amount of a postal order shall discharge the Postmaster-General and his officers from all liability whatsoever in respect of the order. The new regulations apply to the Channel Islands and the Isle of Man.

POST-OFFICE SAVINGS BANKS.

This department of the Post Office has been removed to a new building in Queen Victoria-street, and which is designed to accommodate the large number of officials and their 3500 ledgers, containing more than 2,000,000 of depositors' current accounts. The average daily issue of warrants during the past year was 4654; the greatest number issued on any one day was 9060 for the repayment of £34,200. In the course of the year more than 80,000 letters were received and answered. The total number of offices open for the transaction of Savings Bank business was at the end of the year 5831.

The average balance to the credit of each open account at the close of the year was £16 1s. 4d., or an increase of 5½d. upon the average balance, and the relative proportion for England and Wales, Scotland, and Ireland being £16 1s. 11d., £10 14s. 3½d., and £19 6s. 3½d., as compared with £16 1s. 5½d., £10 11s. 11½d., and £19 6s. 0½d. respectively.

The total amount of interest allowed to depositors from the establishment of Post-Office Savings Banks to the end of 1878 was £5,937,033, of which £699,603 accrued during the year 1878, being an increase of £38,144 above the amount which accrued during the previous year.

By an Act which came into operation in November, 1880, an alteration was made in the rate of interest payable to depositors, which shall not exceed £2 15s. per cent per annum. On a request made to the Postmaster-General a depositor may have his savings invested, provided the sum shall not be less than ten pounds, or the current price of ten pounds stock; and the amount of stock credited in any savings bank year shall not exceed one hundred pounds stock. The whole amount of stock credited to any one's account shall not exceed five hundred pounds stock.

SAVINGS IN POSTAGE-STAMPS.—The Postmaster-General, with a view of affording facilities to the public for collecting, by means of postage-stamps, sums of one shilling, that being the smallest amount received by the Post-office Savings Bank, ordered that:—"Any person desirous of saving 1s., by means of penny contributions, for deposit in the Post-office Savings Bank, may do so by purchasing with every penny so saved a penny postage-stamp and affixing it to a form to be obtained at the Post-Office. When twelve such stamps have been so affixed, the form may then be taken to any post-office savings bank in the United Kingdom, where it will be received by the postmaster either as the first deposit in a new account then to be opened, or as an ordinary deposit if the owner of it has already opened an account. The stamps affixed to this form must not be defaced or in any way damaged, or they cannot be received by a postmaster.

ASTRONOMICAL OCCURRENCES.

THE MOON is near Mars during the morning hours of the 23rd and 24th being to his right on the former, and left of Mars on the latter day. She is situated to the right of Jupiter, Saturn, and Venus on the morning of the 25th, Jupiter being the furthest and Venus the nearest of the three planets. On the morning of the 26th she is to the left of the same planets, being nearest to Jupiter and furthest from Venus, the planets Saturn and Venus being near to each other; and she is near Mercury on the morning of the 29th. Her phases or times of change are:—

First Quarter on the 6th at 44 minutes after 10h. in the morning.
Full Moon „ 13th „ 24 „ 10 „ afternoon.
Last Quarter „ 20th „ 7 „ 3 „ afternoon.
New Moon „ 27th „ 36 „ 11 „ afternoon.

She is nearest the Earth on the 16th, and most distant from it on the 4th.

MERCURY rises on the 1st at 4h. 12m. a.m., or 22 minutes before sunrise; on the 11th at 4h. 4m. a.m., or 13 minutes before sunrise; on the 18th the planet and Sun rise nearly together, and from this day till July 20 Mercury rises in daylight. On the 17th he sets at nearly the same time as the Sun, 29 minutes after sunset on the 21st; and at 9h. 34m. p.m., or 1h. 31m. after sunset, on the last day of the month. He is near Saturn on the 6th, near Jupiter on the 7th, in his ascending node on the 16th, in superior conjunction with the Sun on the 17th, at his least distance from the Sun on the 20th, and near the Moon on the 29th.

VENUS sets on the 1st at 8h. 2m. p.m., or 41 minutes after sunset; on the 5th she sets with the Sun, and from this day until the end of the year she sets in daylight. She rises 30 minutes before sunrise on the 1st; on the 11th at 3h. 29m. a.m., or 48 minutes before the Sun; on the 21st at 2h. 59m. a.m., or 1h. 4m. before sunrise; and on the last day at 2h. 32m. a.m., or 1h. 20m. before sunrise. She is in inferior conjunction with the Sun on the 3rd, stationary among the stars on the 22nd, in her descending node on the 23rd, and near the Moon on the 25th.

MARS is a morning star, rising at 3h. 14m. a.m. on the 1st, at 2h. 47m. a.m. on the 11th, at 2h. 19m. a.m. on the 21st, and at 1h. 53m. a.m. on the last day, being 1h. 20m., 1h. 30m., 1h. 44m., and 1h. 59m. before sunrise on these days respectively. He is due south on the 1st at 8h. 53m. a.m., on the 15th at 8h. 37m. a.m., and on the last day at 8h. 19m. a.m. He is near the Moon on the 23rd, and at his least distance from the Sun on the 26th.

JUPITER is a morning star, rising on the 1st at 4h. 26m. a.m., or 8 minutes before sunrise; on the 11th at 3h. 52m. a.m., or 25 minutes before sunrise; on the 21st at 3h. 18m. a.m., or 45 minutes before the Sun; and on the last day at 2h. 42m. p.m., or 1h. 10m. before sunrise. He is due south on the 1st at 11h. 33m. a.m., on the 15th at 10h. 51m. a.m., and on the last day at 10h. 2m. a.m. He is near Mercury on the 7th, and near the Moon on the 25th at about midnight.

SATURN is a morning star, rising on the 1st at 4h. 31m. a.m., or 3 minutes before sunrise; on the 11th at 3h. 55m. a.m., or 22 minutes before sunrise; on the 21st at 3h. 18m. a.m., or 45 minutes before sunrise; and on the last day at 2h. 41m. a.m., or 1h. 11m. before sunrise. He is due south on the 1st at 11h. 29m. a.m., on the 15th at 10h. 41m. a.m., and on the last day at 9h. 45m. a.m. He is near Mercury on the 6th, and near the Moon on the 25th.

ASTRONOMICAL OCCURRENCES.

THE MOON is near Mars during the morning hours of the 21st. She is near the planets Venus, Jupiter, and Saturn on the morning of the 22nd. She rises on this morning at 10 minutes to 1, and from this time to 4h. a.m. she is to the right of Saturn, and after this time she moves to the left of this planet and towards Jupiter; the three planets form a triangle, Jupiter being the highest in the heavens, and nearer to Venus than to Saturn, and she is near Mercury during the evening hours of the 28th, being a little to the right of the planet. The Moon sets on this day at 9h. 9m. and Mercury at 9h. 27m. Her phases or times of change are:—

First Quarter on the 5th at 19 minutes after 3h. in the morning.
Full Moon „ 12th „ 56 „ 6 „ morning.
Last Quarter „ 18th „ 18 „ 9 „ afternoon.
New Moon „ 26th „ 4 „ 2 „ afternoon.

She is nearest the Earth on the 13th, and most distant from it on the 1st, and again on the 29th.

MERCURY is an evening star, setting on the 5th at 9h. 56m. p.m., or 1h. 48m. after sunset, on the 10th at 10h. 5m. p.m., or 1h. 53m. after the Sun; the interval now gradually decreases to 1h. 47m. by the 15th, to 1h. 36m. by the 20th, to 1h. 22m. by the 25th, and to 1h. by the last day, the planet setting on this day at 9h. 18m. p.m. He is at his greatest eastern elongation (25 deg. 3min.) on the 20th, in his descending node on the 23rd, and near the Moon on the 28th.

VENUS is a morning star, rising on the 1st at 2h. 29m. a.m., or 1h. 22m.

before sunrise on the 10th at 2h. 8m. a.m., or 1h. 38m. before the Sun; on the 20th at 1h. 48m. a.m., or 1h. 56m. before sunrise; and on the last day at 1h. 29m. a.m., or 2h. 20m. before sunrise. She is very near Saturn on the 6th, at her greatest brilliancy on the 8th, near Jupiter on the 19th, near the Moon on the 22nd, and at her greatest distance from the Sun on the 27th.

MARS is a morning star, rising on the 1st at 1h. 51m. a.m., or 2 hours before sunrise; on the 10th at 1h. 27m. a.m., or 2h. 19m. before the Sun; on the 20th at 1h. 0m. a.m., or 2h. 44m. before sunrise; and on the last day at 0h. 35m. a.m., or 3h. 14m. before sunrise. He is due south on the 1st at 8h. 17m. a.m., on the 15th at 8h. 1m. a.m., and on the last day at 7h. 43m. a.m. He is near the Moon on the 21st.

JUPITER is a morning star, rising on the 1st at 2h. 38m. a.m., on the 10th at 2h. 8m. a.m., on the 20th at 1h. 33m. a.m., and on the last day at 1h. 0m. a.m., being respectively 1h. 13m., 1h. 38m., 2h. 11m., and 2h. 49m. before sunrise on these days. He is due south on the 1st at 9h. 59m. a.m., on the 15th at 9h. 16m. a.m., and on the 30th at 8h. 29m. a.m. He is near the Moon on the 22nd.

SATURN is a morning star, rising on the 1st at 2h. 37m. a.m., on the 10th at 2h. 4m. a.m., on the 20th at 1h. 27m. a.m., or 2h. 17m. before sunrise; and on the last day at 0h. 49m. a.m., or 3h. before sunrise. He is due south on the 1st at 9h. 42m. a.m., on the 15th at 8h. 52m. a.m., and on the last day at 7h. 59m. a.m. He is near Venus on the 6th, and near the Moon on the 22nd.

THE REVENUE OF CUSTOMS.

GREAT BRITAIN.

It appears that while the Revenue of Customs diminished in 1879 in comparison with that of the preceding year to the extent of £460,676, that of Ireland, notwithstanding the severe distress, during the latter part of the year actually increased by £39,700.

value actually of the imports in the year 1879 was £262,991,000, against £368,770,000 in the year 1878, being a decrease of £5,779,000 or 1.5 per cent. After a great increase in the total value in the year 1877, when the amount reached £384,419,000, the highest on record, it fell to £268,770,000 in 1878, so that the figures given for the year 1879 represent a very considerable decrease upon the diminished value of the previous year, and comparing the results of the two years 1878 and 1879, there is a diminution of 31 millions, or 8 per cent. The following are some of the principal articles imported into this country in the year 1879, with the quantities and values as compared with the like particulars in 1878:—

	Quantities.	Value.	Quantities.	Value.
Cotton, Raw ... cwt.	11,967,000	33,519,000	13,119,000	36,180,000
Flax "	1,553,000	3,481,000	1,695,000	3,584,000
Hemp "	1,229,000	1,915,000	1,208,000	1,691,000

" Goats ... "	7,060,000	752,000	10,072,000	743,000
" Other kinds "	5,288,000	382,000	5,070,000	343,000

The total quantity of the above-named articles was 24,642,000 cwt., and the value £72,464,000, and, on a comparison with the figures for 1878, shows an increase in the quantity, and also in the value of the importations.

The total weight of the principal ores, metals, and metal manufactures of all kinds imported in 1879 was 1,736,000 tons, and the value £13,213,000.

Articles partially manufactured decreased in value from £19,356,000 to £16,594,000. The following are the principal articles—viz. :

The quantity of spirits of all kinds imported in 1879 was 13,546,000 gallons.

TOBACCO.—The importation of tobacco of all sorts was comparatively small, being only 42,452,000 lb., against 93,059,000 lb. in 1878, a falling off of 50,607,000 lb., or 54 per cent. The large importations in the three previous years had the effect of keeping up the stock in the bonded warehouses to a very high figure, there being a diminution in the stock of only 18,156,000 lb., or 13·4 per cent as regards the year 1878, but still an increase of 7 per cent upon the stock of 1877.

THE CITY OF LONDON PUBLIC WORKS AND REVENUE ACCOUNT.

The Chamberlain of the City of London, pursuant to Act of Parliament, presented his account with the City in respect of various public and trust funds in the Chamberlain's London. The following is a statement showing the loans raised by the City within the last quarter of a century for the purpose of public improvements:—For the formation of the Metropolitan Cattle Market and extension of its slaughterhouses, 1852-6 and 1873-6, £478,600; for the Holborn-valley and Farringdon Market improvements, 1864-72, £2,376,000; for the Metropolitan Meat, Poultry, Fruit, and Vegetable Market, site, approaches, &c., 1863-78, £1,087,000; for the London Central Fruit, Flower, and Vegetable Market, approaches, &c., £551,000; for the Foreign Cattle Market at Deptford (1870-9), £280,000; for the enlargement of Billingsgate Market (1872-8), £272,000; for the building of the Royal Exchange, £98,500; for the rebuilding of Blackfriars-bridge (1864), £300,000; for ditto and the purchase of Southwark-bridge (1867-9), £315,000; for the preservation of openc spaces (1876-9), £100,000; and the above accounts the only amounts paid off apparently are £604,100 on the Holborn-valley improvements; £113,000 on the Metropolitan Meat and Poultry Market, &c.; £22,000 on the Deptford Cattle Market, £8200 on the Royal Exchange, and £60,000 on Southwark Bridge. The total amounts due for the above-mentioned purposes stood, according to the above account, on Dec. 31 last, at £5,129,800.

Various duties and rates yielded the respective sums given below :—

ASTRONOMICAL OCCURRENCES.

THE MOON is near Saturn during the nights common to the 11th and 12th, the distance between the planet and the Moon decreasing as the night advances. She is near Jupiter during the whole of the next night, and near Mars during the night of the 15th. She will be near Venus during the morning of the 20th, and Mercury during the morning of the 25th. Her phases or times of change are:—

First Quarter	on the 1st	at 2 minutes	after 2h.	in the afternoon.
Full Moon	„ 3th „	39 „	4 „	„ morning.
Last Quarter	„ 15th „	1 „	8 „	„ morning.
Full Moon	„ 23rd „	55 „	11 „	„ morning.
First Quarter	„ 30th „	48 „	9 „	„ afternoon.

She is nearest the Earth on the 6th, and most distant from it on the 18th at midnight.

MERCURY is an evening star, setting on the 3rd at 6h. 56m. p.m., or 14m. after sunset, which interval slowly increases to 21m. on the 8th, to 23m. on the 13th, to 24m. on the 18th, the planet setting on this day at 6h. 31m. p.m. On the 23rd he sets at 6h. 20m. p.m., or 24 minutes after sunset; and on the 28th at 6h. 10m. p.m., or 25 minutes after sunset. He is in his descending node on the 19th, near the Moon on the 25th, and at his greatest distance from the Sun on the 29th.

VENUS is a morning star, rising on the 8th at 1h. 47m. a.m., or 3h. 37m. before sunrise; on the 18th at 2h. 11m. a.m., or 3h. 29m. before the Sun; and on the 28th at 2h. 39m. a.m., or 3h. 18m. before the Sun. She is in her ascending node on the 13th, and near the Moon on the 20th.

MARS rises on the 7th at 10h. 3m. p.m.; on the 17th at 9h. 44m. p.m., and on the 27th at 9h. 24m. p.m. He is due south on the 1st at 6h. 24m. a.m.; in the middle of the month at 6h. 3m. a.m.; and on the last day of the month at 5h. 36m. a.m. He is near the Moon on the 15th, in quadrature with the Sun on the 21st, and in his ascending node on the 27th.

JUPITER rises on the 7th at 8h. 46m. p.m., or 2h. 15m. after sunset; on the 17th at 8h. 7m. p.m., or 1h. 58m. after sunset; and on the 27th at 7h. 28m., or 1h. 41m. after sunset. He is due south on the 1st at 4h. 54m. a.m.; on the 15th at 4h. 0m. a.m.; and on the last day at 2h. 59m. a.m. He is near the Moon on the 13th, and stationary among the stars on the 14th.

SATURN rises on the 7th at 8h. 22m. p.m., or 1h. 50m. after sunset; on the 17th at 7h. 42m. p.m., or 1h. 33m. after sunset; and on the 27th at 7h. 1m. p.m., or 1h. 14m. after sunset. He is due south on the 1st at 4h. 1m. a.m., on the 15th at 3h. 5m. a.m., and on the last day at 2h. 3m. a.m. He is near the Moon on the 12th.

THE METROPOLITAN BOARD OF WORKS.

(Office, Spring-gardens.—Hours 9 to 4; Saturdays, 9 to 2.)

The Metropolitan Board of Works was constituted by the Metropolitan Management Act of 1855. Under this and subsequent Acts it has carried out several special works, such as the Main Drainage of London, the construction of the Victoria, Albert, and Chelsea Embankments on the Thames, the formation of Queen Victoria-street, Northumberland-avenue, &c. It has opened up or widened other thoroughfares, such as Garrick-street, Southwark-street, Burdett-road, Holborn (Middle-row), Park-lane, Shore-ditch, Great Eastern-street, Harrow-road, the improved thoroughfare from Hart-street, Bloomsbury, to Shoreditch, &c.; formed Finsbury and Southwark Parks; and preserved open spaces, such as Hampstead-heath, Blackheath, Shepherd's-bush, Clapham-common, &c. Among the works now proceeding are the widening of Coventry-street, Tooley-street, &c., making a new street from Piccadilly to Hart-street, Bloomsbury, and the clearance of sites for Artisans' Dwellings. It has purchased the tolls of all the Bridges that cross the Thames in the Metropolitan area. Its principal general duties comprise the control over the formation of streets and the line of buildings therein, the testing of gas and of gas-meters, the maintenance of the Fire Brigade (a force of upwards of 400), the maintenance of the Main Drainage System, and of parks and commons. It is the "Metropolitan Authority," under the Water, Tramways, Petroleum, Artisans' Dwellings, Contagious Diseases (Animals), Slaughter-houses, Explosive Substances, and other Acts. It raises money (in Metropolitan Consolidated Stock) not only for its own works, but for advances to the Managers of the Metropolitan Asylums District, the School Board for London, the Vestries, the District Boards, the Metropolitan Boards of Guardians, and other corporations within the Metropolis. Members of the Board are elected by the respective Vestries and District Boards in the Metropolis. The Corporation of the City of London elects three members.

The Act of last Session, 43 and 44, c. 25, empowers the Metropolitan Board of Works to expend money and borrow to a large amount for Metropolitan purposes. The Board may up to Dec. 31, 1881, expend £10,000 on the Fire Brigade, and £30,000 on parks, commons, and open spaces. From Jan. 31 to Dec. 31 next the Board may expend £3,766,579 5s. 11d. Among the amounts which may be expended are £42,028 3s. 5d. under the Street Improvements Act, 1872; £25,000 for parks, commons, and open spaces; £25,000 for the Thames Embankments and other places, including the Northumberland-avenue; £7000 on the obelisk on the Victoria Embankment; £112,551 2s. 6d. on the toll bridges; and £1,500,000 under the Improvement Act of 1877, and £500,000 for artisans' and labourers' dwellings, besides other sums set forth in the schedule annexed to the Act, in addition to advances to public bodies. The borrowing powers amount to £485,372 2s. 10d., and for loans to other bodies £368,100, making £853,472 2s. 10d. The Board may issue "Metropolitan Bills" and make arrangements with banks as to the issue of the same securities. There are twenty-seven sections in the Act, and two schedules to carry the Act into execution.

THE LOCAL GOVERNMENT BOARD.

The treasurer's account, published in abstract, gives the valuation of England and Wales for county rates at Lady Day, 1879, at £114,994,217, an increase of £2,200,000 upon the previous year. The valuation for police rates, £74,541,997, an increase of rather less than one million. The amount raised by county rates was £914,025, the average amount of the rate being 1 15-16d. in the pound; this amount was less by £207,279 than the preceding year. Police rates were about the same each year—namely, £567,355, the amount of the rate being 1 13-16d. in the pound. The total of local and imperial taxation was £2,046,818, which was £234,465 below the previous year. The expenditure upon the police was £1,060,293; upon prosecutions and conveyance of prisoners, £130,090; upon prisons, £120,114; lunatic asylums, £351,997; salaries of county officials, £269,998; loans repaid with interest, £397,261; and all other expenses came to £364,591; the total expenditure being £2,694,344, or £174,955 below that of 1878. The loans outstanding against the county authorities at the close of the year amounted to £2,963,014.

THE METROPOLITAN GAS SUPPLY.

Towards the close of the Session 1880, an instructive Report was issued, containing the accounts of the gas companies of the metropolis for the previous year. The total capital and borrowed money of the companies is no less than £12,681,818, divided as follows:—Chartered, £9,096,771; Commercial £690,000; Phoenix, 1,208,000; South Metropolitan, £826,688; London, £860,359; making a total of £12,681,818. The accounts of the South Metropolitan Company include a half-year's independent working of the late Surrey Consumers' Company, January to June, 1879. The total income of the Chartered Company was £2,577,335; of the Commercial, £300,460; of the London, £312,000; of the Phoenix, £380,994; and of the South Metropolitan, £355,970, giving a total income of all the companies, from all sources, of £3,926,769. All the companies showed an increase in their income as compared with 1878—the Chartered, £158,587; the Commercial, £16,731; the London, £30,836; the Phoenix, £15,468; and the South Metropolitan, £25,640; or a total increase of £247,261. The gross profit of the Chartered showed an increase over 1878 of £55,800, the Commercial an increase of £2886, and the South Metropolitan an increase of £5155. The gross profit of the Chartered Company was £787,495, of the Commercial £83,348, of the London £73,111, of the Phoenix £111,707, and of the South Metropolitan £107,414, giving a total gross profit of £1,163,077. The Chartered Company realised on capital and borrowed money a gross profit of £8 13s. 2d. per cent, and on gas rental a gross profit of £38 14s. 3d. per cent; the Commercial, £12 1s. 7d. per cent and £35 15s. 1d. per cent; the London, £8 9s. 11d. per cent and £30 18s. 11d. per cent; the Phoenix, £9 4s. 11d. per cent and £37 16s. 1d. per cent; and the South Metropolitan, £12 19s. 10d. per cent and £40 16s. 4d. per cent, giving an average of £9 3s. 5d. per cent on the capital and borrowed money of all the companies, and of £37 19s. 8d. per cent on the gas rental.

Out of the total of 50 members 22 had not seats on the late board, while the number of new members in 1876 and also in 1873 was 25.

From the School Board Report, issued for the half year ending March, 1880, we learn that the anticipated difficulty of carrying out the Act has not been at all equal to what was expected. In 1870 the number of children on the registers of elementary schools in England and Wales was 1,693,000; in 1874 it had risen to 2,497,000; and in 1879 to 3,710,000, showing an increase of 119 per cent in nine years. The number of children in actual attendance in 1870 was 1,152,000; in 1874 it was 1,679,000; in 1879 it was 2,595,000, an increase of 125 per cent. The next point was the amount of accommodation. In 1870 there were 1,817,000 places; in 1874 there were 2,572,000; in 1879 there were 4,142,000, an increase of 121 per cent. The grant in 1870 was at the rate of 9s. 11½d. per child; in 1874 it was 12s. 5d.; in 1879 it was 15s. 5½d., an increase of 56 per cent. The percentage of population on the school registers was 7.7 in 1870, 10.6 in 1874, 14.7 in 1879. These figures were almost startling. The outlay on school buildings by School Boards and voluntary bodies has been £20,000,000 in the nine years, of which the School Boards had spent over £13,000,000. The total cost of elementary education in schools under inspection in England and Wales had never been given. In 1870 it was £1,527,000, or an average of £1 6s. 5d. per scholar; in 1874 it was £2,620,000, the average being £1 11s. 2½d.; in 1879 it was £4,775,000, the average being £1 16s. 5d. The money in 1879 was made up of £136,000 from endowments, £754,000 from voluntary contributions, £636,000 from the rates, £1,372,000 in school fees, £49,000 from miscellaneous sources, and £1,828,000 from imperial funds; total, £4,755,000. In addition the cost of administration had been £987,000, so that voluntary subscriptions exceeded the contributions from the rates, and school fees exceeded both. In 1870 the average amount of school fees paid by each scholar was 8s. 4½d.; in 1874, 9s. 8½d.; and in 1879, 10s. 5½d. The population under the Boards numbered about 13,000,000. The total expenditure of the Boards last year was £3,700,000, of which only £243,000 went for administration. The percentage of average attendance in 1870 was 68.1. In 1874 it had fallen to 67.2, but last year it had risen to 69.9, and that average was considerably less than it would have been if it were not for the half-timers, who caused a depreciation of at least 10 per cent. The proportion of scholars examined in the fourth standard and upwards in 1870 was 19 per cent; in 1874, 18.1 per cent; and in 1879, 22.1 per cent. The numbers examined were, in 1870, 102,630; and in 1879, 888,680. There are 77 blind children taught in 29 different schools; and there are also 162 deaf mutes under instruction on what is termed the "Dual System"—that is, sign and lip teaching, and there are many more children waiting for school accommodation. The rise in the number of certificated teachers had been from 12,647 in 1870 to 29,766 in 1879. Assistant teachers had increased from 1262 to 6616, and pupil teachers from 14,300 to 33,195.

CIVIL LIST PENSIONS.

The grant of a Civil List Pension of larger amount than usual may call attention to this class of pensions and their limitations. They are granted under the Civil List Act of 1 Vict., c. 2, whereby it is provided that there shall be paid quarterly out of the Consolidated Fund, such pensions, at the rate of £1200 a year for each year of her Majesty's reign as may be granted by her Majesty, chargeable on the Civil List revenues. But the statute enacts that such pensions "shall be granted to such persons only as have just claims on the Royal beneficence, or who, by their personal services to the Crown, by the performance of duties to the public, or by their useful discoveries in science and attainments in literature and the arts, have merited the gracious consideration of their Sovereign and the gratitude of their country." Forty-three years have seen the list of these pensioners very much thinned by death. The finance accounts for 1879 showed that the total amount of the pensions then payable was but £22,108, and the accounts for 1880 show that there was not a net increase of £1200 in the year, the total being still only £22,467.

The additions to the List last year were as follows:—

Mrs. Sarah Vargas, £25, in consideration of the long and meritorious services of her late husband, Mr. Peter Vargas, superintendent of the Parliamentary messengers under the Secretary to the Treasury.

Miss Sarah Sophia Vargas, £25; Miss Clara Vargas, £25; Miss Louisa Emily Vargas, £25; Miss Rosa Vargas, £25; Miss Henrietta Vargas, £25, in consideration of the long and meritorious services of their father, the late Mr. Peter Vargas, superintendent of the Parliamentary messengers under the Secretary to the Treasury.

Miss Mary Ann Sydney Turner, £75, in consideration of the services rendered by her father, the late Very Rev. Sydney Turner, as inspector of reformatories and industrial schools.

Miss Millicent Flora Louisa MacLeay, £100, in consideration of the services rendered to art by her father, the late Mr. Kenneth MacLeay, a life visitor of the Royal Scottish Academy.

Mr. Richard Henry Hengist Horne, £50, in addition to the pension of £50, granted in 1874, in recognition of his contributions to literature.

Mrs. Marian Hepworth Dixon, £100, in consideration of the literary services of her late husband, Mr. William Hepworth Dixon.

Mr. Walter Hood Fitch, £100, in recognition of his long and valuable services towards the advancement of botanical science.

Mr. William Thomas Best, £100, in consideration of his services to music.

Mr. Samuel Carter Hall, £150, in recognition of his literary services.

Dr. Henry Dunbar, £50, in consideration of his services to classical literature.

TRADE AND COMMERCE.

A good harvest is plainly an addition to the wealth of the country, whether evenly distributed or otherwise. This wealth is of the kind which is rather an addition to revenue than to capital. Abundant crops at once improve the circumstances of the farmer who sows and reaps them; the landowner is also put in a better position, for rent depends upon the average yield of land, and a good year raises the average. The consumer should, of course, be benefited, for the cheapness and abundance of food leave them more to spend on the secondary necessities and luxuries of life. Trade and profits are thereby increased, and wages tend to rise in all industries.

In the twelve months ending Aug. 31, 1880, the import of wheat into the United Kingdom reached 59,815,691 cwt., equal to 13,803,621 qrs., and when we add to this the import of wheat flour, which amounted to 10,431,726 cwt., or 2,980,493 qrs., we find that we received from abroad no fewer than 70,747,417 cwt., or 16,784,114 qrs. of wheat and wheat flour. In the twelvemonth ending Aug. 31, 1878, the amount was 62,255,125 cwt., or 14,808,966 qrs., and in the twelvemonth ending Aug. 31, 1879, it was 60,849,823 cwt., or 14,543,607 qrs. Our other imports of corn in the twelvemonth ending Aug. 31, 1880, comprised 31,870,896 cwt., or 7,436,542 qrs., of Indian corn or maize; 12,882,665 cwt., or 3,467,147 qrs. of barley; the very large quantity of 15,622,912 cwt., or 5,681,059 qrs. of oats; 2,002,772 cwt., or 445,061 qrs. of peas; and 2,754,518 cwt., or 645,721 qrs. of beans. The grand totals are as follows:—In 1877-8, the twelvemonth's import thus classed under the title of "corn," amounted to 134,430,348 cwt., or 33,558,689 qrs.; in 1878-9 it was 124,866,538 cwt., or 31,510,900 qrs.; and in 1879-80 it reached 134,881,180 cwt., or 34,456,644 qrs.

The American wheat crop of 1880 was estimated to yield 450,000,000 bushels, and the home consumption 250,000,000 bushels, thus leaving an available surplus for exportation of 200,000,000 bushels, which is much above the average of previous years. The value of the exports of American bread and breadstuffs during each of the last two years has exceeded in value the exports of any other commodity, and it is of interest to know that there was in 1879 an increase in the value of breadstuffs of 28,577,687 dollars over that of 1878, an increase of 15.72 per cent. The splendid harvests enabled the American farmers to send us in 1878 and 1879 150,000,000 bushels of wheat and flour. The actual exports of breadstuffs from the United States for the calendar year 1879 amounted to 177,908,553 bushels—that is, 147,265,648 bushels of wheat, against 134,319,966 bushels for the year 1878.

The following table shows the several crop products of the United States for the calendar year 1879:—

Crop.	Acres.	Yield.	Product.
Corn ...	53,085,401	26.9	Bushels 1,514,899,000
Cotton ...	12,516,000	191 lb.	Bales 5,020,389
Barley ...	1,730,000	23.9	Bushels 40,000,000
Buckwheat ...	640,200	20.9	" 13,438,000
Oats ...	12,683,500	28.7	" 365,000,000
Potatoes ...	1,836,820	98.9	" 181,369,340
Rye ...	1,550,000	15.9	" 23,646,000
Tobacco ...	493,167	723	Lb. 384,059,659
Wheat ...	32,800,000	13	Bushels 448,755,000

The total value of the above crops was 1,904,480,659 dollars, an increase in wheat of 28,633,000 bushels, and a decrease in cotton of 196,814 bales.

ASTRONOMICAL OCCURRENCES.

THE MOON is near Saturn during the night of Oct. 9, near Jupiter during the night of Oct. 10. She is near Mars during the night of the 13th, near Venus on the morning of the 21st, and near Mercury on the morning of the 24th. Her phases or times of change are:—

Full Moon on the 7th at 59 minutes after 1h. in the afternoon.
 Last Quarter „ 15th „ 26 „ 2 „ morning.
 New Moon „ 23rd „ 31 „ 2 „ morning.
 First Quarter „ 30th „ 47 „ 4 „ morning.

She is nearest the Earth on the 4th, and again on the last day of the month, and most distant from it on the 16th.

MERCURY is an evening star, setting at 6h. 0m. p.m. on the 3rd, at 5h. 51m. p.m. on the 8th, at 5h. 40m. p.m. on the 13th, at 5h. 29m. p.m. on the 18th, at 5h. 18m. p.m. on the 23rd, and at 5h. 4m. p.m. on the 29th, being, respectively, 25 minutes, 29 minutes, 30 minutes, 29 minutes, 28 minutes, and 25 minutes after sunset on these evenings. He is at his greatest eastern elongation (24 deg. 33 min.) on the 16th, near the Moon on the 24th, and stationary among the stars on the 28th.

VENUS is a morning star, rising on the 8th at 3h. 8m. a.m., or 3h. 6m.; before sunrise; on the 18th at 3h. 37m. a.m., or 2h. 53m. before the Sun, and on the 28th at 4h. 7m. a.m., or 2h. 41m. before the Sun. She is at her least distance from the Sun on the 17th, and near the Moon on the 20th.

MARS rises at 9h. 3m. p.m. on the 7th, at 8h. 38m. p.m. on the 17th, and at 8h. 11m. p.m. on the 27th. He is due south on the 1st at 5h. 34m. a.m. on the 15th at 5h. 4m. a.m., and on the last day of the month at 4h. 21m. a.m. He is near the Moon on the 13th.

JUPITER rises on the 7th at 6h. 47m. p.m., or 1h. 23m. after sunset; on the 17th at 6h. 5m. p.m., or 1h. 3m. after sunset; and on the 27th at 5h. 23m. p.m., or 42 minutes after sunset. He is due south on the 1st at 2h. 55m. a.m., on the 15th at 1h. 56m. a.m., and on the last day at 0h. 46m. a.m. He is near the Moon on the 10th.

SATURN rises on the 7th at 6h. 21m. p.m., or 57 minutes after sunset; on the 17th at 5h. 40m. p.m., or 38 minutes after sunset; and on the 27th at 4h. 59m. p.m., or 18 minutes after sunset. He is due south on the 1st at 1h. 59m. a.m., on the 15th at 1h. 0m. a.m., on the last day at 11h. 48m. p.m. He is near the Moon on the 9th.

AREA AND POPULATION OF AFRICA.

The African Continent has a population of 205,679,000, and the total area, as the result of a new estimate, is given as 29,283,000 square kilometres. Of these the forest and cultivated lands are taken to occupy 6,376,725 square kilometres; savannas and light woods, 6,235,378; bush, 1,572,431; steppe, 4,269,027; desert, 10,659,133, of which the Sahara occupies upwards of 9,000,000 kilometres, including many oases and cultivated patches. The area and population of Africa are divided among the chief countries and regions as follows :—

Australia and Polynesia together have a population of 4,031,000. The Polar Regions, 82,000. According to the latest data Europe has a population of 315,929,000; Asia, 834,707,000; Africa, 205,679,000; America, 85,495,500; and, inclusive of Australia, giving a grand total of 1,455,923,500.

ECLIPSES IN 1881.

In the year 1881 there will be two Eclipses of the Sun and two of the Moon.

The first is a Partial Eclipse of the Sun, on May 27-28, invisible at Greenwich. It begins at 9h. 45m. p.m. on May 27, in longitude 104½ deg. E. of Greenwich, and latitude 39½ deg. N. Its greatest phase, when about three-fourths of the Sun's diameter will be obscured, is at 11h. 49m. p.m., in longitude 13½ deg. E. of Greenwich, and latitude 68½ deg. N. The eclipse ends on May 28 at 1h. 52m. a.m., in longitude 94½ deg. W. of Greenwich, and latitude 46½ deg. N.

The Eclipse will be visible from the NE. of Asia and NW. parts of America.

The second is a Total Eclipse of the Moon, on June 12, invisible at Greenwich. It begins at 5h. 11m. a.m., Greenwich mean time, in longitude 78½ deg. W. of Greenwich, and latitude 23 deg. S. The middle of the Eclipse will take place at 6h. 53m. a.m., and it will end at 8h. 36m. a.m., in longitude 128 deg. W. of Greenwich, and latitude 23 deg. S.

The third is an Annular Eclipse of the Sun, on Nov. 21, invisible at Greenwich. It begins at 2h. 13m. p.m., mean time at Greenwich, in longitude 137 deg. W. of Greenwich, and latitude 26½ deg. S., and ends at 6h. 49m. p.m., in longitude 1½ deg. E. of Greenwich, and latitude 39 deg. S.

The fourth is a Partial Eclipse of the Moon, on Dec. 5, partly visible at Greenwich. It begins at 3h. 28m. p.m., Greenwich mean time, in longitude 125 deg. E. of Greenwich, and latitude 22 deg. N. The middle of the Eclipse will be at 5h. 5m. p.m., in longitude 100½ deg. E. of Greenwich, and latitude 22 deg. N., and the end will be at 6h. 49m. p.m., in longitude 76½ deg. E. of Greenwich, and latitude 22½ deg. N.

At Greenwich the Moon will rise at 3h. 50m. p.m.

EMIGRATION STATISTICS.

The Census will, no doubt, show a large increase in the population of England, although emigration has gone on actively for many years. This outlet for an over-populated country is likely to receive a check; for New Zealand, it appears, is already getting overstocked, and the last intelligence received is that no more people should be sent, and no more assisted passages paid out of the Emigration Fund. We learn from the Emigration Returns that the number, nationalities, and destinations of persons leaving the United Kingdom for Places out of Europe, in each of the Years 1874, 1875, and 1876, were as follows:—

ASTRONOMICAL OCCURRENCES.

THE MOON is near Saturn during the night of the 5th. She is near Jupiter during the night of the 6th, and Mars during the night of the 10th; and she is near Venus and Mercury during the morning hours of the 20th. Her phases or times of change are:—

Full Moon	on the 6th at 3 minutes after 2h. in the morning.
Last Quarter	„ 13th „ 1 „ 11 „ afternoon.
New Moon	„ 21st „ 21 „ 4 „ afternoon.
First Quarter	„ 28th „ 1 „ 0 „ afternoon.

She is nearest the Earth on the 25th, and most distant from it on the 13th.

MERCURY transits or crosses the Sun's disc on the 7th and 8th: the first contact will be at 10h. 16m. p.m. on the 7th, and the last at 3h. 38m. a.m. on the 8th, invisible from England. He sets at sunset on the 7th, and after this day sets in daylight. He rises at sunrise on the 6th, 58 minutes before sunrise on the 12th; at 5h. 40m. a.m., or 1h. 43m. before sunrise, on the 17th; at 5h. 32m. a.m., or 2h. before sunrise, on the 22nd; and at 5h. 42m. a.m., or 1h. 57m. before the Sun, on the 27th. He is in inferior conjunction with the Sun on the 8th, and in his ascending node on the same day, at his least distance from the Sun on the 12th, stationary among the stars on the 16th, near the Moon on the 20th, and at his greatest western elongation (19 deg. 52 min.) on the 24th.

VENUS is a morning star, rising at 4h. 38m. a.m. on the 7th, at 5h. 9m. a.m. on the 17th, and at 5h. 41m. a.m. on the 27th, being respectively 2h. 28m., 2h. 14m., and 1h. 58m. before sunrise on those mornings. She is near the Moon on the 20th.

MARS rises on the 6th at 7h. 38m. p.m., or 3h. 14m. after sunset; on the 16th at 7h. 0m. p.m., or 2h. 50m. after sunset; and on the 26th at 6h. 13m. p.m., or 2h. 16m. after sunset. He is due south on the 1st at 4h. 18m. a.m., on the 15th at 3h. 31m. a.m., and on the last day at 2h. 28m. a.m. He is near the Moon on the 10th, and stationary among the stars on the 17th.

JUPITER rises on the 6th at 4h. 40m. p.m., or 15 minutes after sunset; on the 11th he rises at about the time of sunset, and after this day he rises in daylight. He sets at sunrise on the 14th, and at 6h. 12m. a.m., or nearly 1h. 30m. before sunrise, on the 28th. He is due south on the 1st at 0h. 41m. a.m., on the 15th at 11h. 34m. p.m., and on the last day at 10h. 27m. p.m. He is near the Moon on the 6th, and in opposition to the Sun on the 13th.

SATURN rises on the 3rd at about the time of sunset, and after this day he rises in daylight. SAVINGS BANKS.

The following return shows the amount held by the National Debt Commissioners, and whether the Trustee Savings Bank account in their hands will have sufficed, under the present law, to have paid its way without State aid:—On Nov. 20, 1844, the National Debt Commissioners owed to Trustee Savings Banks £29,653,182. Against this Liability the Commissioners held the following Assets:—

3½ per Cents	£14,637,710	3 per Cents, 1726	£29,000
Consols	9,021,322	Exchequer Bills	328,900
Reduced Threes	4,959,312	Cash Balance	757,356

On Nov. 20, 1844, Securities were quoted as follows:—3½ per Cent, at 102½; Consols, at 100½; Reduced Threes, at 99½; Exchequer Bills, at 60 to 65 shillings premium. If, therefore, the Assets had been realised at the prices quoted, they would have produced—

3½ per Cents	£14,637,710	at 102 =	£14,930,464
Consols	9,021,322	at 100 =	9,021,322
Reduced Threes	4,959,312	at 99 =	4,909,719
3 per Cents, 1726 (taken at the same price as Reduced)	29,000	at 99 =	28,710
Exchequer Bills, £328,900 at 60s. premium			338,767

Cash Balance	29,228,582
	757,356
Liabilities as stated above	29,986,338

Surplus of Assets 333,156

The new bill lays down a sounder principle of valuation, by directing that the Funded Securities held by the National Debt Commissioners on account of Savings Banks should be valued at £92·3077 per cent, being a fraction over £92 6s., and representing the price which would give to the purchaser interest at the rate of 3½ per cent. Mr. Gladstone had adopted this principle of valuation in order to measure with correctness the progress year by year of Trustee Savings Bank Finance so far as concerns the National Debt Commissioners.

Table showing the result, on Nov. 20, 1879, if the National Debt Commissioners had started at par on Nov. 20, 1844, their securities being valued on the principle adopted in the Savings Bank Bill (1880), and had received no aid from the Government in the meantime.

BRITISH INDIA.

The first commercial intercourse of the English with the East Indies was a private adventure of three ships fitted out in 1591, only one of which reached its destination. The information obtained led to a mercantile venture, and the Company's first charter dates December, 1600, and their stock consisted of £72,000. The success which attended this Company led to the formation of another in 1698, and both were united under one charter in 1702. The Empire now extends over a territory as large as the Continent of Europe without Russia, having an area of 1,486,319 square miles, and a population of 240 millions. From Peshawur, the northern frontier station, to Cape Comorin the distance is 1900 miles, and a like distance separates Karachi, the port of Sind, from Sudiya, the frontier post on the eastern border of Assam.

Geographically, the country may be broadly divided into Northern and Southern India. Northern India, or Hindustan, lying at the foot of the Himalayas, and stretching from sea to sea, comprehends the rich alluvial plains watered by the Indus, the Ganges, the Lower Brahmaputra, and their tributaries. Southern India, or the Deccan, is a plateau of triangular shape and very old geological formation, bounded on two sides by the Malabar and Coromandel coasts, which converge at Cape Comorin, and on the third by the Vindhya Mountains, north of the Narbaddah river. Three fifths of this great Empire are under the direct rule of the British Government, and are divided for administrative purposes into eight provinces—viz., Bengal, the North-Western Provinces and Oudh, the Punjab, the Central Provinces, British Burmah, Assam, Madras, and Bombay. The remaining two fifths are made up of a large number of native States, whose chiefs, one and all, acknowledge the suzerainty of her Imperial Majesty, "Kaiser-a-Hind."

The total area of British possessions in India, including Burmah, is 899,341 square miles, and of tributary States, 557,903 square miles; population of former, 191,095,445; of latter, 49,203,053; total British possessions, 1,457,244 square miles, population 240,298,500. The French possessions in India have an area of 508½ square kilometres, and a population (1877) of 280,381; the Portuguese an area of 3855 square kilometres and a population of 444,987. Ceylon has an area of 24,702 square miles, and a population in 1877 of 2,755,557. The following table shows the areas and populations of the various subdivisions of the Indo-Chinese Peninsula, according to the latest attainable data of any value:—

	Area. Square kilos.	Population.

THE CENSUS TAKING OF 1881.

On Monday, April 4, the occupier of every dwelling-house will be required to fill up a printed census form, with particulars of name, sex, age, rank, occupation, birth-place, &c., of every member of the household, who abode in the house on the previous night; also whether any are blind, deaf, dumb, imbecile, or lunatic. This Census will be one of more interest than usual, since the Government await the bringing in of a Reform Bill for the assimilation of county and borough franchise until the increase in the population of the country is fully ascertained.

The Census of 1881 will be the ninth decennial enumeration of the inhabitants of Great Britain, and the seventh of Ireland, taken under authority of Parliament. The first of these important investigations was instituted in 1801, in respect of Great Britain; but in Ireland not until 1821. Since then the enumeration has been taken at every decennial period with constantly improving machinery. Whilst in England and the United States a Census is taken every ten years, in France there is one every five years. The United States, however, lately fixed on what is called the periodic decade. As regards England, the organisation has long been completed by the appointment of a special public officer—the Registrar-General, under whose superintendence the previous Censuses have been taken. In Scotland and Ireland until 1861 no similar advantage existed. In 1851, in Scotland, the duty on the former occasion was intrusted to the sheriffs of the several counties, and in Ireland to the department of the Chief Secretary; but in 1855 a Registrar-General was appointed for Scotland, with the same duties as the English officer, and with appropriate machinery. In Ireland, the taking of the Census was committed, under the authority of the Chief Secretary, to the officers of the constabulary.

The preliminary report of the Census of England and Wales in 1871 established some facts of interest. From this it appeared that the increase was almost equally divided between boroughs and counties or divisions of counties, excluding the boroughs which they contain. The total increase of population having been 2,637,884, we find 1,441,393 of this increase within and 1,196,491 without the boundaries of Parliamentary boroughs. Of the 95 counties or divisions of counties the population had increased in eighty-three, leaving a decrease, which amounts in the aggregate to 25,071 in the remaining twelve. Of this decrease, 9755, or more than one third, occurred in the three Welsh counties of Pembrokeshire, Anglesea, and Brecon; and the remainder in East Cheshire, East and West Cornwall, East Cumberland, North Devon, Huntingdonshire, West Norfolk, South Notts, and South Wilts. The greatest diminution in any English division was 6145 in West Cornwall; and the least, 496, in North Devon. South Shropshire showed the smallest increase of any division, amounting only to eight persons; and Middlesex the largest with 332,397—the large increments being mostly in the divisions that contain great towns. Of the 200 boroughs which returned members at the General Election of 1868, 158 increased their population by the already stated aggregate of 1,441,393. Eleven boroughs had been created since the Census of 1861, so that for them no comparison with the past could be made. Thirty lost an aggregate of 54,684 persons; and one—the remarkable case of Cocker-mouth—had remained stationary. In four boroughs the increase was less than 100; in twenty-nine more than 100 and less than 500; in twenty-three between 1000 and 2000; in eleven between 2000 and 3000; in twelve between 20,000 and 30,000; in three between 30,000 and 40,000; in three between 40,000 and 50,000; in four between 50,000 and 60,000; and in one (Lambeth) it was 84,229. The other end of the scale was occupied by Stamford, with an increase of 39 only. Sixty-eight boroughs had undergone alterations of boundary (probably in every case in the direction of enlargement), and sixty-six of those were among the number which show increase. Only two boroughs—Coventry and Macclesfield—had lost in population, notwithstanding the change of boundary. In the former the decrease was 297, in the latter 580. Of the total decrease in borough population, about two thirds, or 37,331, was in the City of London, and more than another sixth, or 8210, in Westminster. It would appear that the proportionate increase of electors was much greater in the provincial than in the metropolitan boroughs, showing that in the latter there were many more persons to be enfranchised by the Reform Bill. Thus, Finsbury and the Tower Hamlets in 1861 had 723,971 inhabitants; and in 1864 they had 55,357 electors, or 7.6 per cent. In 1871 they had 834,884 population; and in 1868 64,308 electors, or 7.7 per cent. It would seem from these examples as if the great increase in borough populations had been chiefly in the class of non-electors.

AMERICAN CENSUS OF 1880.

So much of the Census of 1880 has now been completed as to permit the population statistics of the principal cities in the United States to be arrived at. The following table of figures is of great interest, as showing the present population of these cities, as well as the comparative rates of increase, which are very varying:—

Population.	per cent since 1870.	Population.	per cent since 1870.
New York ... 1,209,551	24	New Orleans ... 207,328	8
Philadelphia ... 842,000	24	Washington ... 160,000	45
Brooklyn ... 654,693	40	Cleveland ... 157,000	71
Chicago ... 477,500	60	Buffalo ... 149,000	27
St. Louis ... 376,000	21	Newark ... 136,000	30
Boston ... 352,000	40	Milwaukee ... 130,000	92
Baltimore ... 330,000	23	Detroit ... 119,000	50
Cincinnati ... 255,000	19	Louisville ... 112,000	11
San Francisco ... 227,330	51	Providence ... 104,000	52

The returns from Pittsburgh and Jersey City have not yet been completed. Chicago, Cleveland, and Milwaukee stand at the head as far as relative increase goes, and betoken the success of the grain and oil-refining trades. At the same time, the rate of increase of many smaller towns is very much larger than these. For instance, Minneapolis, another great milling and lumber centre, shows 244 per cent; Atlanta (a railway centre in Georgia), 106 per cent; Waterbury (the watchmaking city of Connecticut), 102; St. Paul, near Minneapolis, 100; and Denver, in Colorado, the astounding rate of 614 per cent. In ten years the above cities have advanced beyond the hundred thousand limit:—Cleveland, Milwaukee, Detroit, Jersey City, and Providence; and there are probably others yet to be heard from. The older cities, too, continue to increase in a manner almost as remarkable. New York has jumped from eight hundred thousand to twelve hundred thousand, Chicago has increased in much the same proportion, whilst the population of San Francisco is five times greater now than in 1860.

New York, Philadelphia, and Brooklyn retain their relative positions; but Chicago and St. Louis change places, the former being now fourth, and St. Louis fifth. Baltimore, which was sixth in 1870, has given place to Boston, which was then seventh, and San Francisco has advanced beyond Cincinnati and New Orleans, going from tenth to eighth place. It may be said, speaking generally, that the population of all the principal cities has doubled during the last twenty years. But this increase is, of course, largely due to immigration—New York alone receiving its thousands weekly from the emigrant steamers.

A YEAR'S RAILWAY STATISTICS.

From a report presented to Parliament on the number of accidents which occurred on the railways of the United Kingdom during the year 1879 we learn that the total number of persons returned to the Board of Trade as having been killed in the working of the railways during the year was 1032, and the number of injured 3513. Of these 160 persons killed, and 1307 persons injured were passengers. Of the remainder, 452 killed and 1951 injured were officers or servants of the railway companies, or of contractors; and 420 killed and 255 injured were trespassers and suicides, and other persons who met with accidents at level crossings or from miscellaneous causes. Of the passengers, according to the returns made to the Board of Trade, 75 were killed, including 73 supposed to have been lost in the Tay Bridge disaster, and 602 were injured from accidents to trains. In addition to the above, the companies have returned 42 persons killed and 2314 injured from accidents which occurred on their premises, but in which the movement of vehicles on railways was not concerned, and which consequently cannot be considered as "Railway Accidents."

The total number of passenger-journeys, exclusive of journeys by season-ticket holders, was 562,732,890 for the year 1879, or 2,291,565 less than in the previous year. Calculated on these figures, the proportions of passengers killed and injured in 1879 from all causes were, in round numbers, 1 in 3,517,000 killed and 1 in 430,000 injured. In 1878 the proportions were 1 in 4,520,000 killed and 1 in 322,000 injured.

It appears that of the 100 train accidents investigated the largest number occurred on the following railways, viz.:—14 on the London and North-Western, 1730 miles; 9 on the London, Brighton, and South Coast, 351 miles; 6 on the Great Western, 2080 miles; 6 on the Lancashire and Yorkshire, 473 miles; 4 on the Midland, 1329 miles; 8 on the Great Eastern, 938 miles; 4 on the Metropolitan District, 16 miles; 4 on the Great Northern, 717 miles. The remaining accidents occurred on other railways, but not exceeding three on any one system. The principal causes which led to the accidents appear to have been—Negligence, want of care, or mistakes; inadequate or unsuitable brake-power; defective arrangements of signals, points, &c.; defective system for securing intervals of space between trains; defective maintenance of rolling stock or road; excessive speed; insufficient regulations; and foggy or stormy weather or snowstorms; the most serious, as in all previous years, being that of negligence or want of care or mistakes of officers and servants, inadequate or unsuitable brake-power, defective arrangement of signals and points, and defective system for securing intervals between trains.

The following figures respecting the growth of railway capital and receipts for the first half year of 1880 are more than usually interesting, as they present such a contrast to those of the previous period of 1879. The improvement is most striking in the Northern, &c., lines, where the increase in capital account seems to have almost ceased for the time being, while the receipts have been highly satisfactory in most instances. It must not, however, be overlooked that just before the table was computed the London and North-Western Company issued four millions of new stock, and that the Midland and Lancashire and Yorkshire propose to do so in October:—

ASTRONOMICAL OCCURRENCES.

THE MOON is near Saturn during the night of the 2nd, is near Jupiter during the night of the 3rd, and near Mars during the night of the 7th. She is near Mercury and Venus on the morning of the 20th, she will be near Saturn during the night of the 29th, and near Jupiter during the night of the 30th., up to about 10h. p.m., the time of nearest approach, the planet will be to the left of the Moon, and afterwards to the right of the Moon. Her phases or times of change are:—

Full Moon on the 5th at 14 minutes after 5h. in the afternoon.
 Last Quarter „ 13th „ 5 „ 8 „ afternoon.
 New Moon „ 21st „ 7 „ 5 „ morning.
 First Quarter „ 27th „ 42 „ 8 „ afternoon.

She is nearest the Earth on the 23rd, and most distant from it on the 11th.

MERCURY is a morning star, rising on the 2nd at 6h. 0m. a.m., or 1h. 47m. before sunrise, on the 12th at 6h. 46m. a.m., or 1h. 13m. before the Sun; on the 22nd at 7h. 30m. a.m., or 36 minutes before sunrise; on the 27th at 7h. 52m. a.m., or 16 minutes before sunrise; and on the last day of the year the planet and Sun rise nearly together. He is in his descending node on the 16th, near the Moon on the 20th, and at his greatest distance from the Sun on the 26th.

VENUS is a morning star, rising on the 7th at 6h. 12m. a.m., or 1h. 41m. before sunrise; on the 17th at 6h. 42m. a.m., or 1h. 21m. before sunrise; on the 27th at 7h. 8m. a.m., or 1h. before sunrise; and on the last day of the year at 7h. 16m. a.m., or 53 minutes before the Sun. She is near the Moon on the 20th.

MARS rises on the 6th at 5h. 20m. p.m., or 1h. 30m. after sunset; on the 16th at 4h. 22m. p.m., or 33m. after sunset; on the 21st he rises at about the time of sunset, and after this day he rises in daylight. He is due south on the 1st at 2h. 23m. a.m., on the 15th at 1h. 11m. a.m., and on the last day of the year at 11h. 35m. p.m. He is near the Moon on the 8th, and in opposition to the Sun on the 27th.

JUPITER sets on the 8th at 5h. 20m. a.m., or 2h. 30m. before sunrise; on the 18th at 4h. 42m. a.m., on the 28th at 4h. 0m. a.m., and on the last day of the year at 3h. 42m. a.m. He is due south on the 1st at 10h. 23m. p.m., on the 15th at 9h. 22m. p.m., and on the last day at 8h. 15m. p.m. He is near the Moon on the 3rd, and again on the 30th.

SATURN sets on the 8th at 4h. 14m. a.m., on the 18th at 3h. 33m. a.m., on the 28th at 2h. 51m. a.m., and on the last day at 2h. 38m. a.m. He is due south on the 1st at 9h. 38m. p.m., on the 15th at 8h. 40m. p.m., and on the last day of the year at 7h. 35m. p.m. He is near the Moon on the 2nd, and again on the 30th.

VALENTINE'S DAY.—WHICH SHALL I CHOOSE?
FROM "THE ILLUSTRATED LONDON NEWS."

BRITISH TRADE AND REVENUE.

The Commissioners of Customs in their annual report, advert to the causes of the decline in the revenue from the customs during the past year, and they state that they cannot confidently expect that the tide which has apparently turned to a more hopeful flow of prosperity will produce its effect on our revenue by increasing its receipts until the demand for labour is once more in excess of its supply, and general employment at improved wages has become the realised consequence.

The Revenue Customs diminished in 1879 in comparison with that of the preceding year to the extent of £460,676; that of Ireland, notwithstanding the severe distress which prevailed in parts of it during the latter part of 1879, increased by £39,700. It appears that the total value of the imports in the year 1879 was £362,991,000, against £368,770,000 in the year 1878, being a decrease of £5,779,000, or 1·5 per cent. After a great increase in the total value in the year 1877, when the amount reached £394,419,000, the highest on record, it fell to £368,770,000 in 1878, so that the figures given for the year 1879 represent a very considerable decrease upon the diminished value of the previous year, and, comparing the results of the two years 1877 and 1879, there is a diminution of 31 millions, or 8 per cent. The total weight of the principal ores, metals, and metal manufactures of all kinds imported in 1879 was 1,736,000 tons, and the value £13,213,000.

The quantity of spirits of all kinds imported in 1879 was 13,546,000 gallons, against 12,211,000 gallons in 1878, or an increase of 1,335,000 gallons, equal to 10 per cent. The total value of spirits in 1879 was £3,000,000. The importation of tobacco of all sorts was comparatively small, being only 42,452,000 lb., against 93,059,000 lb. in 1878, a falling off of 50,607,000 lb., or 54 per cent. The large importations in the three previous years had the effect of keeping up the stock in the bonded warehouses to a very high figure, there being a diminution in the stock of only 18,156,000 lb., or 13·4 per cent, as regards the year 1878, but an increase of 7 per cent upon the stock of 1877. The decrease in the importation of wine is as conspicuous as in 1878, having fallen from 16,452,000 gallons to 15,162,000 gallons, or 7·8 per cent. The following figures show the decline that has taken place since the year 1877, when the diminished importations began—viz., 1877, 19,568,000 gallons; 1878, 16,452,000 gallons; and 1879, 15,162,000 gallons.

The increase of £1,000,000 in imports from British possessions is the net result of increases and decreases of no considerable amount. The largest increases are those of £1,000,000 in the value of the imports from the Dominion of Canada—three quarters of a million in the value of those from New South Wales, £636,000 in those from the British West Indies, and half a million in those from New Zealand. The decreases are to be found under the heads of India for £2,000,000, Mauritius for £246,000, and some other smaller sums not indicating any changes of importance. There was a decrease of 3 per cent in the value of the exports upon the year, those for 1879 being £191,531,758, as against £192,848,914 in 1878. The Commissioners think it scarcely necessary to notice any other country than the United States of America in tracing the cause of the increase in British exports, as seen in the total value for the foreign countries. The total value of the exports to the United States increased from £14,552,076 in 1878 to £20,321,990 in 1879, or 39·6 per cent. The difference is to be found chiefly in the large quantities of iron of all kinds. In order to show the relative value of the principal articles exported from this country, the Commissioners have had the following list prepared, showing the goods exported in 1879, in the order of their total value, and grouping together all that can be fairly designated by a common title:—

Cotton manufactures, including yarn, £63,974,053; woollen manufactures, including yarn, £19,575,396; iron and steel, unwrought and wrought, £19,417,363; apparel, &c., including haberdashery, hats, and umbrellas, £7,924,348; coals, cinders, and fuel, and products of coal, peat, or shale, £7,708,591; machinery and mill-work of all sorts, £7,279,205; linen manufactures, including yarn, £6,549,094; chemical products, &c., including alkali, bleaching materials, manure, and medicines, £6,167,753; articles of food and consumption, comprehending beer and ale, biscuit and bread, butter, cheese, corn, fish, provisions unenumerated, British spirits, and British wine, £6,026,604; jute manufactures, including yarn and bags empty, £3,601,080; leather of all sorts, including saddlery and harness, £3,566,054; hardware and cutlery, including implements, £3,392,480; copper, unwrought and wrought, £3,082,479; books, printed paper, stationery, and prints, £2,764,024; silk manufactures, including yarn, £2,391,944; earthen and china ware and clay manufactures, £1,975,744; oil seed and other sorts, £1,733,026; skins of all sorts, including foreign dressed in the United Kingdom and raw hides, £1,380,133; wool, sheep and lambs', and other sorts, including foreign dressed in the United Kingdom, £1,379,968; pickles, sauces, and oilman's stores, including candles and soap, £1,226,879; arms and ammunition of all sorts, £1,092,213; painters' colours, £1,039,914; furniture, household, and oil cloth, £816,459; glass of all kinds, £783,033; caoutchouc, manufactures of, £761,717; lead, pig, rolled and sheet, £566,966; cement, £551,888.

Comparing 1865 and 1879 this country consumed in the latter year seven times as many hundredweights of imported bacon and hams, more than three times as much beef, nearly three times as much cocoa, twice as much butter and cheese, and nearly three times as much corn. These facts point to a rapidly improving condition of the labouring classes. The exact figures of these increases were:—Bacon and hams, from 713,346 cwt. to 4,917,631 cwt.; beef, from 44,431 cwt. to 812,237 cwt.; butter, from 1,083,717 cwt. to 2,045,399 cwt.; cheese, from 853,277 cwt. to 1,789,721 cwt.; cocoa, from 7,464,982 lb. to 26,155,788 lb.; and corn of all kinds from 49,492,111 cwt. to 136,743,743 cwt. Eggs, for which we are mainly dependent upon France, owing to the neglect by British farmers of the small industries, were sent in 1865 to the number of 364,000,000, and the ready sale here induced the producers to increase the poultry farms sufficiently to send us more than double the number last year—namely, 763,000,000. This item of eggs may undoubtedly be reckoned as a home consumption, although it is a probable that a portion of the other articles previously named are received by the merchants in this country only to pass them on to other markets. Of fish, the culture of which is not at all developed as it might be, we imported under half a million cwts. in 1865, and 1,160,140 cwts. last year. Currants and raisins, dependent as they are upon the weather, within the limited area of the production, increased but slightly; but twice as many oranges and lemons were consumed last year as fifteen years before—namely, 3,433,059 bushels, as compared with 1,566,745. Potatoes advanced from 506,753 cwt. to 9,357,179. In coffee, the increase was from 1,232,120 cwt. to 1,609,386 cwt.; while of tea there were 63,000,000 more pounds imported last year than in 1865, the total import being 184,076,472 lb., of the value of £11,262,593, or about half a million sterling more than the total cost of the British Navy in this present year of grace.
